

GOVIND SHARMA Industrial / Product Designer

Hello ! My name is Govind Sharma, an Industrial Designer from India. I have three years of fruitful experience in Industrial Design. During these three years, I worked on couple of interdisciplinary projects. Various facets of Industrial design like ergonomics, aesthetics, mass production, visualization, NPD and prototyping are covered in depth during these projects. At present, I am acquiring expertise in A-class surface, branding & packaging, strategy and CMF detailing. Also, I hold Reddot Design Concept winner and IF Design Talent winner labels.

With jovial and approachable personality, I am an inquisitive team player, a provocative learner and a wise appreciator. I always look forward to be part of a team with vision, and have passion and courage to achieve it.
